COMMON QUESTIONS ABOUT OUR WEBINARS

-I attended the ATFP Module Overview webinar on 9 September, should I also attend the session on 30 September?

You are welcome to attend, but the Module Overview on 9 September covered the same information as the Module Overview on 30 September will. We recommend that you attend both the ATFP Module Overview (Class 1 of 2) and the ATFP Module Work Flow (Class 2 of 2).

-Are webinars recorded and posted?

Yes, webinars are recorded and posted to the EPRM Help site.

-Has the OPSEC webinar been posted?

Yes, the 28 August OPSEC webinar was recorded and is available for viewing on the EPRM Help site.

AVAILABLE MODULES

EPRM serves various security disciplines with dedicated modules. Feel free to reach out for access or for more details.

-Operations Security (OPSEC)

-Anti-Terrorism / Force Protection (AT/FP) (on base)

-AT/FP (off base) / Interagency Security Committee (ISC)

-Mission Assurance

-Acquisition Security

-Cyber

MARMS

The Antiterrorism Force Protection (ATFP) module update is on schedule and is anticipated to be pushed to SIPR in early fall– this update will include the 2023 DoD Benchmarks.

EPRM MODERNIZATION

As previously noted, the EPRM application is being re-engineered and will move to the cloud. We expect users to be able to log into the modernized SIPR site in Summer 2025.

SEEKING VOLUNTEERS

As mentioned in previous newsletters, the modernization of EPRM will require testing and early implementers. To those that have already signed up to participate in the testing – THANK YOU. The current plan is to have email communications start going out to testers in fall. We would expect the actual testing to start in the new year (early 2025). The dates are not yet firm.
